Title Insurance

What is “title?”

As it relates to real estate, “title” refers to the ownership rights to a certain piece of property.

What is title insurance?

Title insurance is an insurance policy that protects property owners and their lenders against losses related to the property’s title or ownership. Title insurance minimizes the risk of acquiring property whose legal history is unknown to the purchaser.

Title insurance is issued for a one-time fee, called a premium, usually due at the time of closing or settling a real estate transaction, and is based on the price of the property. Title insurance coverage lasts as long as the insured or their heirs hold title to the property.

What are the different types of title insurance?

There are two types of title insurance:

- ▼ An owner’s title insurance policy guarantees that the buyer has the right to the property. It usually covers the cost of any legal fees that may arise when defending a claim.
- ▼ A lender’s title insurance policy protects a bank or other lending institution issuing a mortgage from any losses resulting from disputes over property ownership. This policy covers the amount of the loan, and the premium is calculated based on that amount. Most lenders require this coverage. Unlike an owner’s policy, this coverage ends when the mortgage is paid.
- ▼ Examples of the many risks against which title insurance can protect a buyer are:
 - ▶ Forged documents
 - ▶ Fraud
 - ▶ Confusion from similarity of names
 - ▶ Liens existing against the property at the time the policy was issued
 - ▶ Clerical errors in public records
 - ▶ Inaccurate or conflicting wills and trusts related to the title
 - ▶ Missing heirs claiming to own the property

Explanation of the Title Commitment

This explanation may help you understand the contents of the title commitment you receive from First American Title.

Schedule A

This is the information submitted to our title department by the escrow officer. It contains the basic information given to us by the buyer or real estate agent such as the legal description of the property, sale price, loan amount, lender, name and marital status of buyer and seller.

Schedule B

The Schedule B “exceptions” are items which are tied to the subject property. These include Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&Rs), easements, homeowner’s association by-laws, leases and other items which will remain of record and transfer with the property. They are referred to as “exceptions” because the buyer will receive a clear title “except” the buyer’s rights will be subject to conditions in the CC&Rs, recorded easements, etc.

Additional Items

These are items that First American needs to delete and/or record in order to provide a clear title to the property. Items that need to be addressed may include:

- ▼ Current property-tax status,
- ▼ Any assessments that are owed such as those for a homeowners association,
- ▼ Any encumbrances (or liens) on the property.

Sometimes items show up against a property because another person has a name similar to an involved party. This is one of the reasons that you are asked to fill out an Identity Statement; to determine if items may be inaccurate and can be deleted.

The Importance of Title Insurance

An Owner's Title Insurance Policy is your best protection against potential defects that can remain hidden despite the most thorough search of public records. A Lender's Title Insurance Policy also exists to protect your mortgage lender's interest.

You don't want a problem that occurred long before you bought your property to deprive you of ownership or your right to use or dispose of it.

And you don't want to pay the potentially high cost of defending your property rights in court.

For a one-time premium, First American agrees to reimburse you for covered losses suffered due to undetected defects that existed prior to the issue date of your First American policy, up to the amount of the policy.

Unless specifically excluded, your First American Title Insurance Policy also provides for legal defense costs.

Your First American Title Insurance Policy protects you against potential defects such as:

1. Forged deeds, mortgages, satisfactions, or releases
2. Deed by person who is mentally incompetent
3. Deed by person in a foreign country, vulnerable to challenge as incompetent, unauthorized, or defective under foreign laws
4. Deed challenged as being given under fraud, undue influence or duress
5. Deed signed by mistake (grantor did not know what was signed)
6. Deed executed under falsified power of attorney
7. Undisclosed divorce of one who conveys as sole heir of a deceased former spouse
8. Deed affecting property of deceased person, not joining all heirs
9. Deed recorded but not properly indexed so as to be locatable in the land records
10. Undisclosed but recorded federal or state tax lien
11. Undisclosed but recorded judgment or spousal/child support lien
12. Undisclosed but recorded prior mortgage
13. Undisclosed but recorded boundary, party wall, or setback agreements
14. Misinterpretation of wills, deeds, and other instruments
15. Discovery of later will after probate of first will
16. Erroneous or inadequate legal descriptions
17. Deed to land without a right of access to a public street or road
18. Forged notarization or witness acknowledgment
19. Deed not properly recorded (wrong county, missing pages or other contents, or without required payment)
20. Deed to a purchaser from one who has previously sold or leased the same land to a third party under an unrecorded contract, where the third party is in possession of the premises

Understanding “Escrow” and its Importance to you

An escrow is an independent, neutral intermediary that manages the exchange of money for real property.

Whether you are the buyer, seller, lender, or borrower, you want the comfort of knowing that no funds or property will change hands until all of the instructions in the transaction have been followed and conditions met. The escrow holder, while maintaining the privacy of the consumer, must safeguard the funds and documents while they are in the possession of the escrow holder. When all conditions of the escrow transaction have been met and the parties agree, the escrow holder will disburse funds and record the documents conveying the title.

Escrow: How does it work?

Once the parties to the transaction (buyer/seller/lender and/or borrower) have reached an agreement, the signed contract or purchase agreement, along with the buyer's earnest money deposit, is submitted to the escrow holder. At that point, an escrow is opened. The escrow holder will now follow the mutual written instructions of the buyer and seller, maintaining a neutral stance to facilitate the successful exchange of money and property between the parties. The escrow holder will also follow the instructions of the lender in meeting their conditions.

The duties of an escrow holder include, but are not limited to:

- ▼ The processing and coordination of the flow of documents and funds
- ▼ Ordering the title search which will indicate the record of ownership and status of the subject property
- ▼ Responding to lender's requirements
- ▼ Responding to authorized requests from parties to the transaction
- ▼ Preparation of a final statement for each party (often referred to as the HUD-1 or Settlement Statement), that shows the costs and charges associated with the transaction
- ▼ Facilitation of the signing of loan documents
- ▼ Closing of the escrow, only when all conditions are met and funds are in place in accordance with instructions

What Happens At First American?

During the escrow period, our title department begins researching and examining all historical records pertaining to the subject property. Barring any unusual circumstances, a commitment for title insurance is issued, which indicates a clear title or lists any items which must be cleared prior to closing. The commitment is sent to you for review.

Consider This

One escrow transaction could involve over twenty individuals including real estate agents, buyers, sellers, attorneys, escrow officer, escrow assistant, appraiser, title officer, loan officer, loan processor, loan underwriter, home inspector, termite inspector, insurance agent, home warranty representative, contractor, roofer, plumber, pool service, and so on. In addition, often times one transaction may also depend on the successful close of another sale.

When you consider the number of people involved, you can imagine the opportunities for challenges, miscommunications and delays.

Your transaction may include the following steps:

OPEN escrow and deliver earnest money deposit to be held in a separate escrow account.

CONDUCT a title search to determine ownership and status of the subject property.

ISSUE a Title Commitment and begin the process to delete or record items to provide clear title to the property.

If applicable, REQUEST payoff information for the seller's loans, other liens, homeowners association fees, etc.

PRORATE FEES, if applicable, and prepare the Settlement Statement.

SET separate appointments for buyer and seller in order to sign documents and deposit funds (if applicable).

REVIEW documents to confirm that all conditions and legal requirements are fulfilled; request funds from lender.

When all funds are deposited, RECORD documents at the County Recorder to transfer the subject property to you.

After recordation is confirmed, CLOSE escrow and disburse funds, including seller's proceeds, loan payoffs, real estate agent's commission, related fees for recording, etc.

PREPARE and send final documents and accounting to parties involved.

The buyer should know:

IDENTITY STATEMENT

You may be asked to fill out an Identity Statement that enables our title department to distinguish you from others with identical names during our search of County records. It also provides basic information that will be useful for your escrow officer.

HOME LOAN

Unless you are paying cash, assuming a loan, or the seller is financing, you will need to apply for a home loan if you have not already done so. Apply as soon as possible to comply with the purchase contract and to avoid delaying the closing.

RESPONSE TO SELLER'S NOTICES

If directed by the contract, you may receive the following items, among others, which require a response from you.

- a. Seller's Property Disclosure Statement listing any existing problems known to the seller.
- b. Information pertaining to the Home Owners Association (HOA) or Planned Unit Development (PUD), such as Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&Rs), if applicable.
- c. Flood Hazard Disclosure if the property is in a flood area.
- d. Independent inspections, such as those for termites, septic tank, etc.

GOOD FUNDS

Foreign Checks: First American Title does not accept foreign checks into escrow. This includes foreign checks paid through a US Bank. All money coming from outside the United States must be sent via wire transfer.

Third Party Checks: First American Title does not accept any third party checks. These include any check drawn on a non-financial institution account or payable to a payee other than First American Title and subsequently endorsed to First American Title.

All funds deposited in escrow should be in the form of wires or cashier's checks. Any funds deposited to close escrow should be in the form of a wire to prevent any delays in closing. Cash is not acceptable for safety and security reasons.

Ways to take title in Arizona

How To Hold Title?

You should inform your escrow officer and lender as soon as possible of how you wish to hold title to your home and exactly how your name(s) will appear on all documents. This allows your lender and title company to prepare all documents correctly. (Changes later, such as adding or deleting an initial in your name, can delay your closing.) You may wish to consult an attorney, accountant or other professional before deciding how to hold title.

Note: Arizona is a community property state. Property acquired by a husband and wife is presumed to be community property unless legally specified otherwise. Title may be held as "Sole and Separate." If a married person acquires title as sole and separate, his or her spouse must execute a disclaimer deed to avoid the presumption of community property. Parties may choose to hold title in the name of an entity, e.g., a corporation; a limited liability company; a partnership (general or limited), or a trust. Each method of taking title has certain significant legal and tax consequences; therefore, you are encouraged to obtain advice from an attorney or other qualified professional.
